

I am in favor of 99-25 because we are a small rural community located about 25 miles on all sides from any major city with radio stations. the local busnessies have to pay primemum addvertising rates for coverage to areas that wouldnt even think of buying from them, just so people around here do. a small local station would be great!
thank you,
bob.