

As an educator, the value of LPFM broadcasting is obvious where my students would benefit greatly from the opportunity to have a voice in their community and improve their communication skills.

Please make this opportunity a legal possibility for my students and our community! We support micro power and/or low power broadcasting in our community and school and hope you will work to make it a reality for us.

Thank you!