

I strongly support the legalization of micropower radio stations, for the simple democratic reason of "free speech." With an increase of corporate owned radio, there has been a dramatic increase in censorship. Low-power radio is a great, inexpensive way for the American Public to receive the unfiltered truth that they deserve.