

I support the action to legalize micro-power radio, simply because it is a great, inexpensive way for Americans to receive unfiltered information. With the rise of corporate owned radio, there has been a dramatic increase in censorship and inaccuracy in radio broadcasting. This action would be in the true spirit of democracy.