

I do support the creation of low power FM radio service. LPFM will be a great communication tool to many groups, communities & organizations.