

Please go ahead with the liscencing of new low power stations.It would benefit large parts of my community that are not being served under the current law. The poitive effects these measures would have in health information, general education and cultural preservation make them some of the most important ideas in the history of the FCC.