

Low power FM is extremely beneficial to small towns. It would prove useful for events such as picnics, fairs and high school events and negates the need for high-powered PA systems. Keep rural America is mind when making your decisions.