

As a man in his mid 50's, I have always wanted a radio station. The FCC is in a position to help me with that dream. I urge you not to let anything come in the way of that. Contrary to what big business and many politicians think people like me will not be silenced. Our voices will be heard. Thank you