

I support low-power broadcasting and would favor a tax increase to develop the technology necessary to insure no harmful interference with other broadcasters.