"Redress Congress"

Honorable J.Dennis Hastert Speaker Of The House Of My Civil Servents

American Citizens Alert Against Corrupt Federal Government

CITIZENS PETITION FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCE TO THE CONGRESS OF THE Republic of U.S.A. Date 1/5/2000

The 1996 Telecommunications Act was passed into Law To Stimulate Free Enterprise and Free Competition, Congressman Tauzin and The Commerce Committee, and The Subcommittee on Telecommunications and Finance, misled by a false appearance or statement; The American Public and The Entire House Of My Civil Servents, by acting in a furtive or underhand way, deceitfully, and secretly by tactlessly to introduce, "Sec:202 Of The Act Which Is A Felony and UN-CONSTITUTIONAL"

The Telecommunications Act, (Section

SEC. 202. is Illegal and Is Void)

(a) National Radio Station Ownership Rule Changes Required: The Commission shall modify section 73.3555 of its regulations (47 C.F.R. 73.3555) by eliminating any provisions limiting the number of AM or FM broadcast stations which may be owned or controlled by one entity nationally. (This Section is Illegal and Is Void) and all of acquiring Radio Stations By The Radio Conglomerates before 1996 are Illegal and a Felony.

See Sanders vs. The FCC one License Per Applicant for License of Community, to prevent Monopolization, and Assure and or to pledge or promise; give surety of; guarantee Free Enterprise and Free Competition.

Date 1/4//2000

Impeach These Civil Servents For A Felony:

Mike Oxley
Hal Rogers
Cliff Stearns (R-FL)
Barbara Cubin (R-WY)
Robert Ehrlich (R-MD)
Vito Fossella (R-NY)
Frank Pallone, Jr. (D-NJ)

Honorable House Of Congress and Oxley, Tauzin, Stearns, remain aware of, all of you are Men and or Man, just as myself, many of you hide behind the word "Honorable" you must earn that title, and you must earn "Respect" just because you are my Civil Servent does not give you that title you must earn it you are not Gods, you are of no special quality, i elected you earn that title, i pay your salary.

To distinguish mentally, it is the Federal Law a command of a court or judge conformity or obedience to law or established authority: The 5 Acts Honorable J. Dennis Hastert Speaker Of The House Of My Civil Servents.

Redress As Set Forth!

In the History of our Republic, The Congress has enacted The 1996 Telecommunications Act.

Sec: 202 is the most brazenly obvious, criminal deed, perpetrated against the American Citizens, by you Our Government, by a formal act, a Un-Constitutional Law, permitting, The NAB and The Radio Conglomerates to obtain exclusive possession of the Radio Broadcast Industry. Honorable J. Dennis Hastert, you need to rectify this Felony, this a genuine Felony, By The Congress Of The Republic Of The United States.

Please Discern: The Five Acts.

Un-Constitutional Law.

Oxley Bill HR 3439.

Antitrust

Mr. Klein, and Congress Discern First Paragraph.

Antitrust law is a system of federal and state law intended to promote competition "by prohibiting acts" and practices that may lead to monopolies and unreasonable restraints of interstate trade.

Five federal acts and the court interpretations of these enactments constitute the heart of American antitrust laws. The five acts are the Interstate Commerce Act (1887), the Sherman Antitrust Act (1890), the Clayton Act (1914), the Federal Trade Commission Act (1914), and the Robinson-Patman Act (1936). Activities prohibited by these laws include monopolization, conspiracies and attempts to monopolize, market allocations among competitors, price fixing and discrimination, group boycotts, tying arrangements, and any other unfair or deceptive practice that may reduce competition. The U.S. Justice Department is the primary government enforcer of the antitrust laws. Private parties are encouraged to enforce antitrust laws through civil actions for injury as a direct result of violations. Successful private litigants normally recover treble damages and court costs, including attorney's fees.

1. BASIC CONCEPTS

A. History. Antitrust law refers to a system of federal and state law intended to promote competition and to prohibit monopolistic trade-restraining practices.

B. Monopolies exist in business environments where there is a seller or buyer with a dominant market position.

a. Monopolistic power refers to the ability of a single entity to control exclusively both the supply and the prices of a product or service. 1. In the U.S., there was a heightened concern over monopolies following the Civil War.

a. Many large corporate enterprises attempted to reduce competition, fix prices, freeze out competitors, and thereby increase profits.

i. Each of two or more corporations would cause a majority of its shareholders to transfer their shares to a trust. (A trust is a legal entity in which a trustee holds legal title to property and the beneficiary of the trust enjoys beneficial or equitable ownership.)

1. The trustee(s) would issue trust certificates to the shareholders in exchange for their shares.
2. The trust certificates gave the owners the right to any dividends declared by the trustees.
3. The board of trustees could control the election of the board of directors of each member company of the trust.
4. The directors of these member companies cut prices below the cost of production in geographic areas where small competitors operated.
  - a. The small competitors were driven out of business.
  - b. The monopolistic trusts then boosted prices to an exorbitant level.
2. Congress responded to such harms by enacting antitrust laws aimed at limiting the monopolies' power. These laws supplemented the common-law rules which protected competition.
  - a. The first laws were aimed specifically at the then existing monopolistic trusts, hence the term "antitrust."
    - i. Today, antitrust regulation is not limited to trusts but regulates a variety of commercial enterprises.
