Federal Communications Commission:

House Of My Civil Servents:
Honorable Speaker Of My House Dennis Hastert:

RECEIVED

JAN 20 2000

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

FCC to retain 2nd adjacent channel restrictions. LPFM that will severly limit the number of LPFM stations that can be licensed nationwide. In RM-9242 I showed how it would be necessary to delete the 2nd and 3rd adjacent channel restrictions to allow any great number of LPFM stations to be created and I showed how this could be accomplished without causing interference. The FCC's own receiver study later proved this was possible. However, under the rules the FCC intends to vote in on Jan 20th, they will drop only the 3rd adjacent channel restrictions and keep in force the 2nd adjacent channel restrictions. This means that, even with the reduced power of 100 watts, very very few stations will be available in the larger markets where the spectrum is tight and the need is greatest.

If You Do Not relax 2nd adjacent channel restrictions
You Must Enact "Enact "The 2000 Radio Broadcast Regression Act"

(FCC Docket MM 99-25 LPFM Citizens Community Interest Radio)

To regress all NAB and NPR Radio Stations to 10 to 3000 Watts to serve their Community Of License not the Entire State or Several States, and Conform, and or to act in accordance with the Custom Laws of our Nation, and The 1927 & 1934 Communications Act. This would allow the American Citizens to

"Equals 2000 Radio Broadcast Regression Act"

(a) Aid, counsel, assistance, etc., to small business concerns

The essence of the American economic system of private enterprise is free competition.

Only through full and free competition can free markets, free entry into business, and opportunities for the expression and growth of personal initiative and individual judgment be assured. The preservation and expansion of such competition is basic not only to the economic well-being but to the security of this Nation. Such security and well-being cannot be realized unless the actual and potential capacity of small business is encouraged and developed. It is the declared policy of the Congress that the Government should aid, counsel, assist, and protect, insofar as is possible, the interests of small-business concerns

in order to preserve free competitive enterprise, to insure that a fair proportion of the total purchases and contracts or subcontracts for property and services for the Government (including but not limited to contracts or subcontracts for maintenance, repair, and construction) be placed with small-business enterprises, to insure that a fair proportion of the total sales of Government property be made to such enterprises,

To eliminate risks, of a Redress Of The Supreme Court and The Fact is Law to be judged on the basis of the evidence. You will cause a calamitous event, to appear openly, if you do not redress this Felony.

The first three articles of the Constitution divide the powers of the United States government among three separate branches: (1) the legislative branch, represented by Congress; (2) the executive branch, represented by the President; and (3) the judicial branch, represented by the Supreme Court. This division, called the separation of powers, is designed to prevent any branch of the government from becoming too powerful.
