Re: Ex Parte Presentation of CBS and Broadcast Sports Technology
In the Matter of Promoting Efficient Use of Spectrum Through Elimination of Barriers to the Development of Secondary Markets, WT Docket No. 00-230

Dear Ms. Salas:

Viacom Inc. (Viacom), the parent company of the CBS Television Network, hereby submits for filing this notice of presentation made on May 25, 2001, concerning the above-referenced proceeding. The presentation was made on-site at the PGA's Kemper Open Golf Tournament at the TPC at Avenel in Potomac, Maryland --which was produced and broadcast by CBS Sports-- to the following FCC employees: Adam Krinsky of Commissioner Tristani's Office; Julius Knapp, Alan Stillwell, Ira Keltz, Tom Derenge and Fred Thomas of the Office of Engineering and Technology; Keith Larson and Rick Chessen of the Mass Media Bureau; and Paul Murray, Gary Michaels, Mary Schultz and Steve Linn of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau.

As part of this presentation, Ken Aagaard, Hal Schiff, Lou Libbin and Ray Benedict of CBS and Peter Larson of Broadcast Sports Technology discussed the difficulties encountered in coordinating and licensing broadcast auxiliary facilities (e.g., wireless wireless cameras) by broadcast and cable networks which produce special sports and news events. The presentation also included demonstrations of the use of the wireless equipment, a walking tour of the golf course to show the positioning of the equipment and an exhibition of the production facilities.

If any questions should arise concerning this matter in connection with CBS, please contact the undersigned. Any questions concerning Broadcast Sports Technology should be directed to Chris Imlay of Booth, Freret, Imlay & Tepper, 5101 Wisconsin Avenue, NW, Suite 307, Washington, DC (202/686-9600).

In accordance with Section 1.1206(b) of the Commission's Rules, an original and one copy of this notification are enclosed for filing in the above-referenced proceeding.

Sincerely,

Anne Lucey
