

The only "local" coverage here in Orange County VA is actually "Roaming" through service purchased through Alltel and is quite spotty. I pay for a month's service and can not get a signal half the time and I'm two miles or less from the tower..