

The need to get digital programming like HDTV is a must. HDTV is to television what the internet is to E Mail. WE are all missing out on HDTV but the biggest stumbling block is not that of the broadcasters, who recieve it from the major networks, but the cable companies who will not give up thier band width to use HDTV Signal.