

The FCC should allocate more spectrum for unlicensed wireless use. Spectrum in the 700 Mhz area would be ideal for non-line-of-site services. A large allocation specifically for wireless internet service would be nice. Spectrum not shared with WLAN equipment.

Also, the FCC should change its rules to allow mixing and matching of FCC-approved antennas and radios, as long as they do not go over the power limits.