

I am a wisp in rural idaho and would appreciate the ability to use more powerfull radios to reach more people. It can be dificult to provide internet access to everyone economically within the current power requirements.