

I believe steps should be taken to implement HDTV more quickly. I own HDTV and am able to utilize the set effectively only as a DVD viewer. When I purchased this equipment I understood HDTV broadcasting would be available within a reasonable time. The spectrum belongs to the government not to the local stations. Local stations should be required to convert within a date certain and publish these conversion plans with all deliberate speed.