

Being an Amateur Radio Operator for 54 years, I surely do not want the possibility of more radio interference than I have now. I have considerable AC interference from the power lines at present and it is very annoying. Therefore I am definitely against this proposal.