

There is little ability for the public to become involved in this transition without considerable effort. Application extensions should not be granted without a public comment period after local notices are published.

Case in point - WOI-DT is no longer communicating with anyone on this subject and was just granted a 3rd extension with almost no time allowed for public comment and with no information available regarding the reason for the extension.