

I wish to object to the use of power lines to carry rf energy. The use of such systems in other countries has caused much RF interference to amateur radio and other forms of communication.