

I strongly urge you (FCC) not to adopt the PLC here in the United States due to the troubles that the Japanese have had. The power companies could not keep adequate quality control and noise reduction down to levels of compliance. This would keep the FCC running in circles from the complaints from Swl's, Ham's, standard radio consumers, and from AM broadcast companies. Sincerely,
Jim Hertel