

I am strongly against using electric power lines for any type of Power Line Communications ( PLC ). Doing this will cause a great deal of interference to HF radio services as well as other radio services. As a licensed amateur radio operator, I hope that the commision will abandon the idea of PLC. -thank you.