

Say NO to Power Line Communications. We currently have phone modem, cable, dls, and other wireless modes of high speed internet connections. Taking on this project will degrade the quality of life, possibly the ability to save lives, for the amateur radio community. Not to mention the degraded enjoyment of SWL's. Isn't there enough interference to our crowded Radio Spectrum?
Scott Risko KC2JFS