

I am concerned that the use of power lines for broadband internet use will render a portion of the radio spectrum unusable, as I am a ham radio operator I urge you to consider all users of the radio spectrum in your decisions.

Thank you