

Amateur radio is a vital part Homeland Security communications.
The threat of PLC interference is of grave concern to all Americans.
The landscape is littered with failed and bankrupt PCS joint ventures of poorly managed power utilities. Any design should meet the FCC's own interference and ERP suppression requirements and must not impact amateur radio communications.