

I am a ham operator and I'm concerned about potential interference from the power companies broadband internet service - please protect our frequencies from noise that will surely be a result if this goes as planned - Lance Sanders, AD5KL