

Please give serious consideration to the negative outcome of implementing Power Line Communications. Utility companies already are a source of immeasurable noise to the Amateur Radio Service, and the PLC proposal will only compound the problem. FCC Chairman Powell in supporting the proposal obviously has not weighed the consequences of using power lines to support broadband dissemination of signals. The plan is technically incompatible with existing spectrum and should be voided.