

I would like to comment on the proposed use of power lines for broadband signals. This is a very BAD idea as it would render useless a large portion of the radio spectrum due to severe RFI problems. These have already been documented in areas where this has been allowed. Emergency communications provided by the Amateur radio service would be severely compromised. Please do not allow our radio spectrum to fall to the interests of large power companies profit motives. Thank You