

As a member of the Amateur Radio Service (callsign KB1FLR) I am concerned that BPL will cause power lines to act as incidental radiators. This would create high noise levels at the high frequencies. This could significantly impact the ability of Amateurs to provide assistance to parties in need, which is part of our mandate from the FCC.