

As a long time ham and recently retired school principal, I sincerely urge you to give every consideration to keeping the HF ham bands free from the interference that plc might cause. It was my privilege to introduce many children to the world of technology through ham radio. It would be a profound loss if we were to lose use of these segments of the spectrum. K9qkw