

I'm concerned about the possible noise levels that might be associated with this technology and Amateur Radio. Everything I'm reading indicates these noise levels would make radio communication nearly impossible in the HF spectrum. Please do not railroad this through and find out later it was a mistake. Thank you for your time.
Randy Dorman... KB3IFH