

Based on experience in Japan RE: this issue I object to approval of this service in the US.

As an amateur radio operator it is my opinion that this service will pose severe and unacceptable interference to HF communications on the very bands which we many times rely upon for emergency RACES and ARES communications.