

I oppose the use of power lines for PLC until more research has been done to assure that there will be no interference to amateur or broadcast radio