

I urge in the strongest terms that Broadcast Over Power Line (BPL) be given rigorous scrutiny to ensure that it does not cause ANY interference to that part of the spectrum between 3 - 30 Mhz. The law of unintended consequences should prompt skepticism that this initiative won't be problematic at some level. The power grid, if it becomes a cause of interference, would be most envasive.