

PLC/BPL should not be considered a viable solution to providing high speed internet access to home users due to its track record of causing disturbances to licensed operations in the HF spectrum. The incumbent (licensed) users of the spectrum must have priority and should be protected.