

Dear FCC

I am writing to express my strong opposition to Broadband over Power Lines. Use of high frequency RF on power lines by this technology has a high likelihood of both generating interference to other services and being susceptible to interference from other radio services. Please do not permit this experimental technology to proliferate!

Daniel Handa