

As a licensed Amateur Radio Operator I am concerned about the proposed rule changes covering BPL/PLC. Placing signals on a power line that is multiple wave lengths long across the HF spectrum thru 80 MHZ. Does not strike me as being in the public interest. Not only will the amateur community feel the effects of this action but AM radio and possibly Hospitals operating test equipment which could be a threat to people receiving medical treatment. Please discard this proposal. Thank You!