

As a retired Telecommunications engineer who helped develop ADSL (DSL), and a licensed amateur radio operator, I strongly recommend not implementing any form of this broadband service until EMI and RFI testing has been done. This will insure that AM broadcasting, HF Broadcasting, amateur radio, and the 4 lower VHF TV broadcast channels will not be negatively impacted. Thank You.