

I feel it would be a great injustice to the Amateur Radio operators to allow PLC to operate on frequencies that have long been in use. I, as an Amateur Radio operator, do hope that our frequencies do not get disturbed. It would be horrible to spend all the time getting licensed and all of the money for equipment just to get interference that cannot be eliminated.