

I don't like the idea at all. I am of the opinion that this would be a nightmare of interference to all, not just hams, but commercial and private as well. It is quite troubling to me that Kennewick WA. seems to be already gearing up for this and possibly already getting underway.