

If this is adopted, it will cause a great deal of Radio Frequency Interference on the Amateur Radio bands. Since Amateur Radio operators help communicate in times of emergency (such as after the recent tornado activity in the Midwest) as well as for community activities (such as marathons and fund-raising walks), their frequencies should be kept free of such interference. Please do not adopt anything that will hurt the Amateur Radio bands.