Re: WT Docket No. 02-55
Ex Parte Presentation

On Friday, May 9, 2003, Alan S. Tilles, Esquire of Shulman, Rogers, Gandal, Pordy & Ecker, P.A. (Counsel to the City and County of Denver, Colorado); Steve Cooper, Division Chief of Technology and Support for Denver; and Steve Browne, Deputy Manager of Safety for Technology and Operations for Denver, met with John Muleta, Chief of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau; Catherine Seidel, Deputy Chief of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau; Tom Stanley, Chief Engineer of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau; D'wana Terry, Chief of the Public Safety and Private Wireless Division; Jeanne Kowalski, Deputy Chief of the Public Safety and Private Wireless Division; and Michael Wilhelm of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, and separately with Paul Margie, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Cops, regarding the Consensus Plan and the Commission's above-referenced rule making proceeding on public safety communications in the 800 MHz band.

During these meetings, the participants and the Commission staff discussed: (1) Denver's 800 MHz radio system; (2) the interference from Nextel and AT&T experienced by Denver's radio system; (3) Denver, Nextel and AT&T's attempts to mitigate the interference; (4) Denver and Nextel's proposed resolution; and (5) Denver's support of the Consensus Plan.
