

BPL (Broadband over Power Lines) represents a catastrophic threat to the amateur radio service, which has repeatedly shown its critical importance. It should not be permitted in its current form, or in any form that potentially interferes with the amateur radio service.