

Given the complete lack of affordable broadband services in our distant locations it is imperative that we are able to utilize emerging technologies such as BPL to ensure the survival and competitiveness of our rural communities.