

The possibility that BPL technology may become implemented concerns me greatly. As long as there are other viable alternatives, I don't believe that BPL is a good idea. As an avid amateur radio operator, I enjoy my privilege of using the HF bands and would hate to see them polluted with noise. Please consider the large population of short wave listeners and amateur radio operators and do not allow BPL to be deployed. Thank you.