

I am opposed to any rule or law which would allow any individual or collective medium to be aggregated. I encourage a diversity of ownership for both broadcasters (cable, satellite or traditional broadcast) and the stations, cables companies, etc. which provide them at the retail level to consumers. I believe diversity best ensures competitiveness and diversity of view.