

While BPL is advertised as bringing internet to every home, studies to date show that it will also cause elevated levels of interference in the 1.6 Mhz to 30 Mhz radio spectrum. The FCC has a legal obligation to protect these services. I hope that it will live up to it's responsibility.