

Please consider the problems BPL will cause other services such as the amateur radio service. The FCC should not allow broadband over power lines because it will surely cause broad interference to existing services.