

I oppose the propose purchase of Hughes Electronics by News Corporation. We need to keep a diversified media, and not create media giants that can dominate the news with their slanted political views.