

Dear Sirs,

I am opposed to permitting BPL/PLC as the implementations I am familiar with will most certainly cause harmful interference to existing licensed HF radio services, particularly the Amateur Radio Service.

This service is already being assailed by incidental radiators of all types (including plasma television receivers, power line noise, etc.) and further interference will only make the situation worse.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Louis Hlousek